How to apply for Medicare - Online

STEP 1: go to SSA.gov

STEP 2: Click on MEDICARE across the top and then select SIGN UP FOR MEDICARE

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Social Security Administration website. The 'Medicare' menu is expanded, showing options like 'Sign up for Medicare', 'Request to lower IRMAA', and 'Apply for Part D Extra Help'. A red circle highlights the 'Sign up for Medicare' option, and a red arrow points from the text on the left to it. Below the navigation bar, there is a large banner with the text 'Your most-need' and 'ces, online' and a button that says 'Sign in or create an account'. To the right of the banner is a photo of a young girl sitting on the shoulders of an older man. Below the banner are four white boxes with blue headers: 'Get a benefits estimate', 'Apply for benefits', 'Check your status', and 'Replace your card'. Each box contains a brief description of the service.

Benefits Application Terms of Service

I understand that I am entering a U.S. Government System to file a benefit application with the Social Security Administration. I understand that I need to provide the Social Security Administration information to process the benefit application. I understand that failing to agree to the statements below will result in my inability to file a benefit application online, which may prevent the Social Security Administration from making an accurate and timely decision about eligibility for benefits.

I understand that:

- the Social Security Administration will validate the information I provide against the information in Social Security Administration's systems.
- my activities may be monitored within this site.
- any person who knowingly and willfully tries to obtain Social Security benefits falsely could be punished by a fine or imprisonment, or both.
- I am authorized to file a claim on my own behalf or on behalf of someone else with the Social Security Administration.

I understand and agree to the above statements.

NO – You don't have an account

The screenshot shows the 'Apply for Benefits' page on the Social Security Administration website. At the top left is the Social Security Administration logo. To its right, the text reads 'Social Security' in a large blue font, with 'The Official Website of the U.S. Social Security Administration' in a smaller font below it. A horizontal line separates the header from the main content area. Below this line, the heading 'Apply for Benefits' is displayed in a grey box. The main content area is titled 'Who Is Completing This Application?' and contains the following text: 'Tell us information about the person completing this application:' followed by two radio button options: 'I am applying for myself.' (which is selected) and 'I am helping someone who is not with me, and therefore cannot sign the application at this time.' Below this is another question: 'Do you have a my Social Security account?' with 'Yes' selected. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Next' (highlighted in blue) and 'Previous'.

The screenshot shows the 'Apply for Benefits' page on the Social Security Administration website, similar to the previous one but with different selections. The header and logo are identical. The heading 'Apply for Benefits' is present. The main content area is titled 'Who Is Completing This Application?' and contains the following text: 'Tell us information about the person completing this application:' followed by two radio button options: 'I am applying for myself.' (which is selected) and 'I am helping someone who is not with me, and therefore cannot sign the application at this time.' Below this is another question: 'Do you have a my Social Security account?' with 'No' selected. Below that is a third question: 'Do you have an address in the United States or U.S. territories?' with 'Yes' selected. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Next' (highlighted in blue) and 'Previous'.

From here on out follow the prompts that are provided in the system.

If you are more than three months older than 65 and you are applying for Part A and B at the same time you will need to provide proof of creditable coverage from an employer that you have had health insurance since turning 65.

Form L564 - complete this form and mail it to your local Social Security office along with a letter stating that you have applied for Part A and B online and instruct them to attach this form to your online enrollment application.

Form L564 is only needed if you are applying more than three months after turning age 65.

THINGS TO

- The process can take between 10 to 30 minutes.
- Ideal to complete the application at one time.
- If you need to stop, you may save your application, and you will be given a reference number to resume the application later.
